

I have called the work Multicultural Education pet ring ceramics (advanced). The goal is to introduce children of Interest Advanced ceramic ring formation and evolution of the world's continents, through awareness and understanding of culture and life of different nations, with the influence of the environment, society and the welfare of ceramic production in different regions on Earth. Final output will consist of two days of firing zakuřované ceramics exhibition of the Academy of the House of children and young people, participation of children in ceramic products for the contest organized by the DDM and SVC Regional Office.